

Table of Contents

About the Authors	vii
Introduction: The Importance of a Maintenance Management Program	1
Maintaining the Asset	2
Marketing and Leasing	3
Cash Flow and Value	5
Operating a Maintenance Management Program	5
About this Key Report	6
Section 1: The Role of Property Management Staff in Developing and Administrating a Maintenance Management Plan	9
Property Managers	10
Administrative Assistants and Assistant Managers	10
Maintenance Personnel	15
Executive or Regional Managers	16
Section 2: Inspecting Your Properties	19
Conducting Inspections	19
Focus	20
Frequency	20
Property Type and Location	20
Condition and Age	20
Staff Availability	20
Duration	20
Mode	21
Who Conducts Inspections?	21
Inspection Forms	22
Determine Maintenance Needs Through Inspections	22
Types of Maintenance	27
Routine Maintenance	27
Deferred Maintenance	27
Emergency Maintenance	27
Preventive Maintenance	28
Corrective Maintenance	28
Cosmetic Maintenance	28

Identifying Problem Areas	29
Hiring Consultants	29
Draft Specifications and Drawings	29
Reviewing Warranties	30
Assessing Insurance Risks	31
Section 3: Developing a Maintenance Management Budget	33
The Property Owner’s Goals and Objectives	33
Assessing the Amount of Available Funds	34
Building Your Budget	35
Establishing Priorities	38
Section 4: Maintenance Contracts	45
The Bidding Process	45
Ensuring Protections and Standards	47
Maintenance Agreement Overview	48
Bidding and Awarding the Contract	65
Section 5: Supervising a Maintenance Management Program	67
Emergency Contact Lists	67
Maintenance Schedules	68
Routine Work	69
Preventive Tasks	69
Corrective Repairs	74
On-Site Maintenance Personnel	75
Building Engineers of Technicians	75
Utility Personnel	76
Day Matron/Day Porter	76
Third-Party Contractors	77
Proximity and Oversight	78
Sustainable Practices	79
Recycling Programs	80
Sustainable Landscaping	81
Janitorial Services	82
Benchmarking	83

Section 6: Communicating with the Property Owner	85
Management Reports	85
Major Renovations	86
Unbudgeted Maintenance Items	89
Annual Management Plan	90
Budget and Cash Flow Projections	91
Meeting with the Property Owner	91
Section 7: Working and Communicating with Commercial Tenants and Residents	93
Working with Commercial Tenants	93
Working with Residents	95
Providing Positive Communication	100
Section 8: Maintenance Requests	103
Receiving and Responding to Maintenance Requests	103
Handling Maintenance Calls	104
Online and E-mail Response Options	105
Work Orders	106
Following Up On a Work Order	109
Determining Landlord, Tenant, and Resident Responsibilities	110
After Hours Requests	114
Maintenance Program Software	115
Section 9: Ethics in Maintenance Management	117
IREM Code of Professional Ethics	119
Article 7. Conflict of Interest	119
Article 8. Managing the Assets of the Client	120
Article 12. Duty to Tenants and Others	121
Adhering to the Code	121
Self-Ethical Tests	122
Maintenance Forms on CD-ROM	123
Additional Resources	129
Index	131