

TABLE OF CONTENTS

ABOUT THE AUTHORS	IX
SECTION 1: Introduction to Troubled Properties	1
Common Causes of Troubled Properties	1
The Real Estate Manager's Role	3
Ethics in Managing Troubled Properties	3
The IREM Code of Professional Ethics	4
Article 12: Duty to Tenants and Others	4
Article 10: Compliance with Laws and Regulations	5
Ethical Self-Tests	5
About this Key Report	6
SECTION 2: Economic Downturns in Real Estate	7
The Real Estate Cycle	7
Economic Downturns from the Past	9
Real Estate Downturn of the Great Recession	9
SECTION 3: Defining the Problem of a Troubled Property	11
Identifying the Types of Problems	11
Physical Issues	11
Management/Leasing Issues	12
Ownership Issues	12
Market Issues	12
Financial Issues	13
Prioritizing the Issues	13
SECTION 4: Analyzing the Troubled Property	15
Establishing the Basics	15
Analyzing the Physical Condition of the Property	16

Inspecting Mechanical, Electrical, and Plumbing (MEP)	17
Examining the Financial Stability of the Property	17
Determining Where to Begin	18
Assembling Your Inspection Team	18
Examining Functional Obsolescence on the Property	20
SECTION 5: The Management Plan	23
Establishing the Research Requirements	24
Executive Summary	24
Purpose of the Study and the Client's Objectives	25
Property Description	25
Managerial Description	26
Income and Expense Analysis	26
Market Analysis	27
Region	27
Neighborhood	28
Comparable Properties	28
Issues and Concerns	28
Identification of Alternatives	29
Testing of Alternatives	30
Cash-on-Cash Rate of Return	31
Value Enhancement	31
Net Present Value (NPV)	31
Internal Rate of Return (IRR)	31
Recommended Courses of Action	32
SECTION 6: Marketing for the Residential Profile and Commercial Property Tenant Mix	39
Evaluate the Property from a Leasing Perspective: Why is it Troubled?	39
Residential and Commercial Tenant Profile and Mix	40
Residential Profile	41
Commercial Tenant Profile	42
Developing a Marketing Plan	43
Regional Analysis	43

Neighborhood Analysis	45
Competitive Analysis	47
Time-and-Rate Problem	48
Evaluating the Leasing Team	48
Creating the Marketing Plan	49
SECTION 7: Effective Management Operations	53
Qualifications of Your Management Company	53
Getting the Property under Control	54
Establishing Priorities with the Tenants and Public Officials	55
Accounting and Budgeting	56
Banking, Third-Party Contractors, and Service Agreements	57
Work Orders: Daily, Critical, and Long Term	57
Creating a Solid Staffing Plan	58
Stabilizing the Management Plan	59
Reporting the Financial and Physical Standing of the Property	60
Benchmarking the Property	60
SECTION 8: Repositioning Troubled Properties	61
Understanding the Market Cycles	61
Dealing with Space and Design Issues	63
Identifying Problems for Shopping Centers	63
Poor Visibility	63
Space Size Too Deep	64
Space Size Too Large	64
Space Size Too Narrow	64
Oddly Shaped Spaces	64
Malls that are Too Wide	64
Extra Hallways in Malls	65
Unanchored Wing or Second Level of a Mall	65
Anchored Tenants Grouped Together	65
Smaller Enclosed Malls	65
Identifying Problems for Office Buildings	65

High-Load Factor	66
Bay Depth	66
Identifying Problems for Residential Properties	66
Issues with Design	66
Value of Floor Level	68
Cost-Effective Alternatives for Repositioning Troubled Properties	68
Choosing Alternatives	68
Overcoming Reputation	69
Lender Participation	69
SECTION 9: Rehabbing Residential and Commercial Properties	75
Improving the Physical Structure	75
The Real Estate Manager's Role during Rehabilitation	76
Determining the Property's Highest and Best Use	78
Forecasting the Marketing and Leasing Plan during Rehabilitation	80
Conducting the Market Survey	82
Working with Existing Residents and Commercial Tenants	83
Managing the Building's Operations	83
Managing the Property after Rehabilitation	84
SECTION 10: Residential and Commercial Tenant Retention	85
Damage Control	85
Communicating with Residents and Tenants	86
Deciding What to Communicate	87
The Foundation for Tenant Retention	87
Lease Renewal Techniques	89
Using Social Media to Retain Tenants and Residents	90
Following Through with Promises	90
Training Staff to Help Retain Tenants and Residents	91
Scheduling Brainstorm Sessions with Staff	92

SECTION 11: Restructuring Commercial Leases to Save Tenants	93
Evaluating the Assistance for Struggling Tenants	93
The Market Condition	94
The Financial Condition of the Building	94
The Cost to Replace a Tenant	94
The Building's Loan Document	95
The Tenant Requesting Assistance	95
Requesting Financial Statements from the Tenant	95
Requesting a Business Plan from the Tenants	95
Evaluating the Tenant's Sales	96
Non-Direct Monetary Assistance	96
Monetary Assistance	97
Renegotiating the Lease	98
SECTION 12: Use of Vacant Space for Shopping Centers	101
Types of Temporary Tenants	101
Specialty Leasing Programs for Malls	102
Leasing Retail Merchandising Units (RMUs) to Tenants	103
Leasing Parking Lot Space to Temporary Tenants	103
Merchandising Vacant Spaces	104
SECTION 13: Refinancing or Restructuring the Loan	107
Understanding Classification Criteria Utilized by Lenders	107
The Desired Outcomes of Negotiating the Loan	108
Getting the Lender's Attention	109
Successful Strategies for Negotiating	110
SECTION 14: Raising Equity	111
Property Cash Flow	111
Ownership Cash	111
Cash Reserves Held by the Lender	112

Insurance Proceeds	112
Cash Call to Existing Partners or Investors	112
Restructure of Existing Loan	112
Second Mortgage	113
Mezzanine Equity Loan	113
Refinance Existing Loan	113
New Partners or Investors	113
SECTION 15: Receivership and Foreclosure	115
The Role of a Receiver	115
Defining the Receiver's Duties	116
The Length of the Receivership Assignment	116
The Foreclosure Process	117
Receivership Opportunities	117
Receivership Liability Issues	118
SECTION 16: Developing an Exit Strategy	121
Factors to Consider When Developing an Exit Strategy	121
The Owner's Likely Hold Period until Sale	122
The Physical Condition of the Property	122
The Fiscal Condition of the Property	122
The Profile of the Likely Buyer	123
The Sales Market for Similar Properties	124
The Financing Available to Buyers	124
INDEX	127