

Chase B. Crawford, CPM®

2024-2025 IREM® Regional Vice President
Region 7 (OK, TX)
Granite Properties
Houston, TX

Chase Crawford is the 2024-2025 regional vice president for IREM (Institute of Real Estate Management) Region 7, encompassing IREM chapters in Oklahoma and Texas. He's also the Houston General Manager at Granite Properties, a privately held commercial real estate investment, development and management company. In 2022, Granite Properties was named NAOIP's 2022 Developer of The Year.

Chase leads the award-winning Houston Property Experience Team, which was recently recognized with the REDNews 2023 Property Management Company of the Year award. In recent years, his team has earned the following awards:

REDNews 2022 Property Manager of the Year
REDNews 2021 Property Manager of the Year
IREM Houston's 2021 CPM of the year
Houston BOMA 2021 APM of the Year
Bisnow 2021 Women Leading Real Estate Rising Star
Houston Business Journal Women Who Mean Business 2020 honoree
Houston BOMA 2018 Engineer of the Year

Chase has over 16 years of commercial real estate experience overseeing the management and operations of a total of 7 million square feet of Class A & B Office in the greater Houston area over his career. He currently oversees Granite's Houston portfolio of 2.3 million square feet of high quality office space.

Chase is a Director for Harris County Improvement District #4, aka The Energy Corridor District, and the 2024 President of the Houston Real Estate Council. In 2017, he became IREM Houston's youngest chapter president in its 65+ year history. IREM Houston is currently the 2nd largest IREM chapter in the world with more than 550 members.

Chase holds a bachelor's degree in psychology from Texas Tech University.