

Libby Ekre, CPM®

2024 IREM® President

MEB Management Services, AMO®

Phoenix, AZ

Libby Ekre, CPM®, serves as the 2024 IREM President.

As a founding partner of MEB Management Services, AMO®, Libby has dedicated her career to developing people. She believes that investing in her team matters, and their growth in their own emotional intelligence is key to success along with growing their confidence through their commitment to lifelong learning.

She has oversight of the company's human resources, talent management, and quality assurance teams, ensuring the company maintains its reputation for excellence. Her commitment to enhancing the skills and capabilities of her team reflects her passion for the industry's growth and development. Libby utilizes these skills in her work with her current partners, Scott Cook and Joe Emerson, and together they created a nationwide firm, Bryten Real Estate Partners.

She also serves as the company's AMO® executive, and is a proud CPM.

Throughout her journey, Libby's held various leadership positions within the industry, and many within the IREM organization. She's most proud to be serving in the international role as 2024 IREM President.

Beyond her professional accomplishments, Libby's a dedicated leader who believes in giving back to the community. One of the ways she demonstrates her commitment to social responsibility is in her efforts to bring hope to those in need. She's passionate about her work with an international children's outreach, and a house for women and children who need shelter and care.

Her philanthropic efforts showcase her compassion and desire to make a positive impact beyond the business world.