

Dustin Sutton is Strategic Director at Meissner Commercial Real Estate Services, where he drives AI powered initiatives that simplify property and asset management workflows for institutional owners, family offices, and fund managers. He is also the Co-Founder and President of the 1,200+ member Black Commercial Real Estate Network (BCREN), a nonprofit advancing diversity, mentorship, and deal flow across the industry.

A UC Berkeley–certified practitioner in AI Business Applications, Dustin turns emerging technology into measurable results - most visibly through his podcast “Tools, Talents & Techniques,” where he interviews executives, entrepreneurs, and other high performers about their journeys and lessons learned. His career spans sales, brokerage, asset management, and PropTech entrepreneurship, giving him a 360-degree view of CRE operations and capital markets.

Whether advising C suite clients on strategy or speaking on inclusive leadership, Dustin’s mission is simple: help real estate professionals stay ahead of the curve while widening the path for the next generation of talent.
