

Melissa Kreutner, CPM® (She/Her)
Senior Vice President, Office/Industrial Property Management

An experienced leader with a focus on developing relationships with owners, teams, and tenants, Melissa specializes in thoughtful leadership, understanding client objectives, and maximizing investment goals, with particular interest in technology advancements and sustainability within the commercial real estate space. She provides leadership oversight, support, and client-facing services to roughly 4.2MM square feet of office and mixed-use spaces throughout Austin and oversees ten property management teams.

A two-time IREM Austin President, Melissa also sits on Endeavor's ESG committee, Property Management Advisory Council, the Building Engineering Advisory Team, and the Standard Operating Procedure Committee.