

Kim Collins, CPM[®]

IREM Executive Committee

CBRE, Inc, AMO[®]

Indianapolis, IN

Kim Collins, CPM[®], serves on the IREM[®] (Institute of Real Estate Management) Executive Committee. Collins is an associate director of asset services for CBRE, Inc., AMO[®], in Indianapolis, IN. In this role, Collins oversees all aspects of property management including recruiting, personnel supervision, financial management, business development, and client relations for the market.

Collins has over 17 years of commercial real estate experience and during her career has managed over 20 million square feet of office, industrial, flex, retail, and medical product in the greater Indianapolis area. Prior to joining CBRE, Collins served in property and facilities management roles with JLL, Duke Realty, REI Real Estate Services, and ProLogis.

Collins has been involved with IREM since 2008 and earned her CPM designation in 2011. In her tenure, she has held several chapter leadership positions including chapter president in 2016. Kim received the CPM of the Year award from her chapter in 2013 & 2016 and her team was awarded AMO of the year in 2017. Kim was member of the National Membership & Credentialing Committee and the Student Outreach Committee from 2016-2018 and served as the Region 6 Regional Vice President in 2019 and 2020. .

Collins earned a Bachelor's Degree from Miami University (Ohio) and holds a Real Estate Brokerage License in the State of Indiana.

Collins is a member of IREM Indianapolis chapter.