2024 IREM® President-Elect
MEB Management Services, AMO®
Phoenix, AZ

Libby Ekre, CPM®, 2023 IREM President-Elect, who's committed to enriching people's lives, with a true dedication to excellence in her field.

As a founding principal of MEB Management Services, AMO®, Libby has played an instrumental role in the growth and success of the company. With an impressive portfolio boasting 24,000 multifamily units, her expertise and strategic insight have propelled MEB to the forefront of the industry. Her unwavering commitment to innovation and operational excellence has positioned MEB as a market leader.

In 2023, she and her business partner made a transformative move, a true collaboration where MEB Management Services and an East Coast real estate firm formed Bryten Real Estate Partners, an exciting entity that now stands tall with 50,000 units and over 1200 real estate professionals across 13 states.

Throughout her career, Libby has been in the Arizona real estate management arena. She leads with integrity and a deep commitment to excellence. Over the years she's overseen portfolios that span multifamily assets, extended-stay hotels, offices, retail space, and medical buildings. She currently oversees the firm's human resources, learning and development, quality assurance, and community outreach activities.

Libby's passion for people extends to her advocacy for community enrichment and outreach. Her dedication to cultivating positive change is a testament to her values and her aspiration to make a lasting impact beyond the boardroom.

Her journey, marked by achievements, challenges, and unwavering determination, is an inspiration to aspiring professionals and a testament to the heights that can be reached through unyielding dedication and a passion for purpose.

Libby is a member of IREM Greater Phoenix chapter.
