Table of Contents

| About the Authorv  |
|--|
| Introduction   |
| Focusing on Small Tenants 1  |
| What Do Our Customers Want? 2  |
| Create Value 3   |
| Have a Plan 3  |
| Hire the Right People 4  |
| Get Back to the Basics 4   |
| Section 1: Midnight Moves and Other Signs of the Times: Why Small Tenants Fail |
| Why Small Tenants Fail 8   |
| Picking Qualified Tenants 9  |
| Lack of Business Savvy 10  |
| Inadequate Finances 11   |
| Inferior Customer Service 12   |
| Poor Marketing and Ineffective Merchandising 13                                |
| Section 2: Secrets to Synergy and Identifying Good Tenants                     |
| Creating a Balanced Tenant Mix 15  |
| First Steps First 16   |
| What's Up Front Matters 18   |
| Financial Qualifications 19  |
| A Business Plan 20   |
| The Financial Statement 20   |
| Additional Information 20  |
| Landlord References 22   |
| Additional Information for Retailers 22  |
| Websites 22  |
| Effective Prospecting 29   |
| Start at Home 29   |
| Work the Room 30   |
| Hire the Experts 30  |

| Section 3: Is Your Tenant Headed for Trouble?33 |  |
|---|--|
| Listen to the Owner's Goals 36                  |  |
| Trust Your Instincts 37                         |  |
| Pay Attention to Your Tenants 37                |  |
| Be Prepared 37                                  |  |
| Determine the Reasons 38                        |  |
| Examine High Occupancy Costs 39                 |  |
| Review Receivables Regularly 39                 |  |
| Consider the Impact 39                          |  |
| Section 4: Evaluating Your Tenants41            |  |
| Constantly Evaluate 41                          |  |
| Assessing Financial Performance 43              |  |
| Where Is the Rent? 44                           |  |
| Create a Tenant Watch List 44                   |  |
| Check Occupancy Costs 44                        |  |
| Benchmark Sales 45                              |  |
| Existing Merchants 46                           |  |
| Potential Tenants 46                            |  |
| Talk to Your Friends and Colleagues 48          |  |
| Utilize Outside Resources 49                    |  |
| Help Your Tenants 49                            |  |
| Section 5: Preparing for Potential Vacancies51  |  |
| Create a Strategy 52                            |  |
| Understand the Owner's Goals 52                 |  |
| Understand the Market 52                        |  |
| Understand the Timing 52                        |  |
| Add Value 53                                    |  |
| Use and Merchandise Vacant Spaces 54            |  |
| Inspect the Vacant Space 55                     |  |
| Make the Space Show-Ready 55                    |  |
| Conceal It 56                                   |  |
| Merchandise It 56                               |  |
| Use It 56                                       |  |

| Section 6: Helping Small Retail Tenants Merchandise | 59 |
|---|----|
| Knowing the Customer 62                             |    |
| Visual Merchandising 62                             |    |
| What's the Impact? 63                               |    |
| Does the Store Appear Cluttered? 63                 |    |
| Are Displays Dazzling? 64                           |    |
| Is Sampling Offered? 64                             |    |
| Inventory Management 65                             |    |
| What's Your Sign? 65                                |    |
| Improving Marketing Efforts 66                      |    |
| Section 7: Strategies for Success                   | 69 |
| Get Back to the Basics 69                           |    |
| Understand Your Property's Niche 70                 |    |
| Make Good Deals 70                                  |    |
| Show Your Stuff 71                                  |    |
| Educate the Tenant 72                               |    |
|   |    |